The allegations are in a marriage of two years for demands of dowry leading to death in other than natural circumstances when the dead body was disposed of clandestinely without informing her parents. The life that was snuffed was 21 years of age awaiting a new life after marriage. The co-accused granted anticipatory bail is the wife of the brother of the husband standing in the position of the daughter-in-law herself. The petitioners are the father-in-law and mother-in-law, fundamentally different in nature.

The application is accordingly rejected.
